

Introduction to the Fundamentals of Restorative Practices & Circles

TWO-DAY INTRODUCTORY TRAINING

We are pleased to offer an engaging two-day training designed to accommodate your schedule, with one session offered in the Fall and another in the Spring. Participants will explore the core principles, values, and processes that guide restorative approaches in both school and community settings.

Training Highlights:

- Understand the goals of restorative practices: building relationships, strengthening community, and repairing harm.
- Learn the use of restorative questions to promote reflection and accountability.
- Practice affective statements to communicate feelings and foster empathy.
- Experience an introduction to restorative circles as a tool for dialogue, connection, and problem-solving.
- This training provides a foundation for educators, support staff, and community members interested in cultivating safe, inclusive, and supportive environments through restorative methods.

Let's build connection and community one circle at a time.
