

STUDENTSSUBJECT: At-Risk Students

The County Board of Education and County Superintendent of Schools recognize that personal, social, health, and economic circumstances of children and families sometimes place students at risk of school failure. The County Board of Education and County Superintendent believe, however, that each student can succeed in meeting County Office of Education academic standards with appropriate educational programs and support services.

(cf. 6011 - Academic Standards)
(cf. 6146.1 - High School Graduation Requirements)
(cf. 6162.52 - High School Exit Examination)

County Office of Education assessments and ongoing classroom evaluations shall be used to identify students performing below grade-level or at risk of failing to meet County Office of Education standards. The County Superintendent of Schools or designee shall develop strategies to address the needs of at-risk students, which may include but are not limited to instructional strategies responsive to the needs of individual students, provision of supplemental instruction outside the regular school day, provision of effective support services, parent involvement, and/or enrollment in an alternative program.

(cf. 0420 - School Plans/Site Councils)

(cf. 6164.6 - Identification and Education under Section 504)
(cf. 6179 - Supplemental Instruction)
(cf. 6300 - Preschool/Early Childhood Education)

The County Superintendent or designee shall ensure that employees are trained to support students and are prepared to implement intervention strategies as needed or to make appropriate referrals.

(cf. 4131 - Staff Development)
(cf. 4231 - Staff Development)

The County Superintendent or designee shall establish a student assistance program to help coordinate the County Office of Education's learning support programs including education, prevention, early identification, intervention, referral, and support services, into an integrated delivery system.

The County Office of Education's program for at-risk students shall emphasize coordination between site, County Office of Education, and community-based programs in order to ensure effective implementation and shared accountability.
